MEMBER NOTES

An insert from December 11, 1927:

B. and P. W. Party:

Members of the Business and Professional Women's Club will make merry Thursday night, December 15, at the home of Miss Susan Hurlburt, 1012 West Broadway, on the occasion of the annual Christmas party. The entertainment committee met at the latter's home Friday night to make plans for the party, which will be thoroughly in keeping with season. Each member will bring a dainty handkerchief, wrapped up Christmasy for the gift exchange. Several prospective members will be guest of the club at this time. A most enjoyable evening is in store for all as guests at the hospitable home.

On Friday evening, Miss Bess Brighton and her corps of assistants in charge of Saturday's gift sale, met at the Hurlburt home and made a quantity of delicious candy for the sale.

enjoyed making fudge and playing games. No wonder the little girls are “just crazy about their big sisters” who are providing such good times for them. The president, Mrs. N. L. Nelson is always present at these parties, and her enthusiasm contributes much to the joy of the occasions.

The January program contains a great surprise for the members, and it is expected that at the opening session of the New Year, several new members will be initiated. This occasion is anticipated with great delight.

Members of the club who wish to accompany the caroling party on Christmas Eve, are requested to meet in the club rooms Wednesday evening, December 14, at 7:30 o'clock for rehearsal.

From Debbie Ulmer:

Another successful chicken dinner! Despite the pandemic, we served a total of 525 dinners with 402 of them being carry outs! We had an abundant variety of desserts with some of our guests buying whole pies and cakes to take home. I want to express my sincere gratitude to Tyson for their donation of the chicken, Sara Lee Bakeries for their donation of the bread, Sysco Foods for the other food items needed, Bandanas BBQ for providing us with to-go containers at a reduced price, and of course my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to Don Weaver and his crew for preparing and cooking the chicken!!!! I had so many compliments on how good the food was. I am so proud of you, the members of this Club, for your volunteer and efforts in making this another successful chicken dinner.

Sympathies:

Our sympathies to Alesia Wissman. Her mother passed away.
