Capital dated March 15, 1928.

B.P.W. OBSERVE FIFTH BIRTHDAY WITH BIG CAKE

The Business and Professional Women's club cut its fifth birthday cake last night when a banquet and program in the Ambassador room of the Hotel Bothwell celebrated the anniversary of the founding of the Sedalia branch.

Some eighty members and friends of the club were seated at the banquet tables. The tables were decorated with two beautiful baskets of flowers, one presented the club by the Helen G. Steele Music club, and on the speakers' table was the birthday cake, surmounted by five pink candles. A four-piece orchestra composed of William Hurlbut, Stanley Shaw, William Ramlow and Mrs. Nellie Monegan, played during the dinner.

At the close of the dinner these took part in a candle lighting ceremony: Mrs. N.L. Nelson, retiring president of the club; Mrs. Susan Hurlbut, incoming president; Miss Cecile Tilberry, Miss Cora Roop, state president of the Business and Professional Women's organization; and Miss Mettie Hanks, president of the Higginsville branch.

Mrs. Edwin F. Yancey, a honorary member of the club, then sang a solo and Miss Mila Swearingen, acting as toastmistress, introduced Miss Rosemary Borrowes who recounted the history of the club.

Upon concluding, Miss Burrowes introduced Ira Melton who had been asked to speak in view of his having presented five years ago, in behalf of the Mayor, the key to the city to Miss Pearl Wilson, the first president of the club here.

Mr. Melton praised the progress, enthusiasm, and spirit of cooperation which the club has manifested and spoke of the place of the woman in the business and professional world.

Mrs. Harvey McGugin sang a solos and was accompanied at the piano, by Miss Mabel DeWitt who had also accompanied Mrs. Yancey.

Miss Cora Roop, state president, was next introduced. She spoke of the short-range and long-range vision local and national, which the business and professional woman must strive to maintain and told of the work and progress of the thirty-two clubs in the Missouri Federation of Business and Professional Women. She also called attention to the state convention of the federation to be held at Columbia in the spring.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. N.L. Nelson, as the retiring president, addressed the club, thanking the members for their cooperation during her administration, and presented the chairman's gavel to Miss Susan Hurlbut, the incoming president.

In appreciation of Mrs. Nelson's service, Miss Hurlbut presented her a bouquet of roses on behalf of the club.

Miss Hurlbut then closed the celebration with a prospect of the future of the club.

We would like to extend our sympathy to the following members at the loss of a family member.

Linda Fox – cousin, Unser Brockman
