MEMBER NOTES

Article from Anne Hamilton's Sedalia BPW scrap book dating back to 1927. Below is an excerpt of the article published in the Sedalia Capital dated July 8, 1927.

"BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN ADDRESSED BY O. B. POUNDSTONE"

AN EXCELLENT SUGGESTION.

O. B. Poundstone made an excellent suggestion recently when, in an address before the Business and Professional Women's club, he urged the establishment of more parks in Sedalia.

Her is a matter that has frequently been commented on both by Sedalians and by strangers—and with a few exceptions, it would seem, public action is in favor of such move.

Mr. Poundstone did not urge the establishment of other parks similar in size to Liberty Park, but rather smaller parks scattered throughout the city; a block or a half block in size, adequately shaded, to which families in the neighborhood could take themselves for a short while each day or as often as they might choose.

Perhaps community centers would be a better name for such places, for that would be their real function, it would seem. Such parks could be used for outings, picnics and other similar occasions and would prove a real convenience to those who would prefer something in that line and those who wish to avoid a long trip to Liberty Park.

Many other cities have such parks or community centers and with few exceptions, all are well patronized. When any project comes up in which the neighborhood is interested, people turn to the community park as a place to hold their meetings.

Sedalia can make a good use of five or six such parks. Establish one on southwest Sedalia, another in south Sedalia somewhere along Kentucky or Osage avenues, another in southeast Sedalia, another in East Sedalia somewhere in the neighborhood of Broadway and Engineer and still another in northeast Sedalia.

It appears that Mr. Poundstone's suggestion can be fulfilled at slight cost and that Sedalia should lose no time in the attainment of such a park system.

Denise Jaegers is a new grandmother of a cute little baby boy! Congratulations Denise!
