MEMBER NOTES

Article from Anne Hamilton's Sedalia BPW scrap book dating back to 1927. Below is an excerpt of the article published in the Sedalia Capital dated December 16, 1927.

PARTY IS GIVEN FOR B.P.W. CLUB

One of the most enjoyable of the holiday parties was that given Thursday night by members of the Business and Professional Women's club at the home of Miss Susan Hurlbut, 1012 West Broadway. Miss Hurlbut is chairman of the entertainment committee of the club.

The Hurlbut home was decorated in holly, mistletoe and other Christmas decorations, and the forty guests present spent a delightful evening. Games of various kinds were played. Miss Christine Landmann and Mrs. Albert Tracy rendered vocal solos, Miss Mable DeWitt gave a piano number, and Miss Hurlbut entertained with two readings.

Late in the evening a two course buffet luncheon was served in the dining room, which was most attractive with candelabra, the table centered with miniature Christmas tree and lighted red candles on the table and buffet. Miss Mary O'Bannon and Miss Besse Brinton, both charter members of the club assisted in serving. Miss Brinton, pouring the coffee and Miss O'Bannon serving the plum pudding.

Each guest brought a handkerchief, which were prettily wrapped, and before leaving each guest drew one from the number.

Congratulations to Amanda Davis and Katy Kirby being featured in the top 20 under 40 published in the October 30 Sedalia Democrat!

We would like to express our sympathy to the following members at the loss of a family member:

Sue Parrish – brother-in-law

Emily Schmidt gave birth to a baby boy, Charles William Michael, on November 14th. Congratulations to proud parents!

Kelly Asbury's husband was involved in a serious accident at work on November 22nd. Let's keep them in our prayers.
