MEMBER NOTES

Article from Anne Hamilton's Sedalia BPW scrap book dating back to 1927. Below is an excerpt of the article published in the Sedalia Capital dated March 15, 1928.

B.P.W OBSERVE FIFTH BIRTHDAY WITH BIG CAKE

The Business and Professional Women's club cut its fifth birthday cake last night when a banquet and program in the Ambassador room of the Hotel Bothwell celebrated the anniversary of the founding of the Sedalia branch.

Some eighty members and friends of the club were seated at the banquet tables. The tables were decorated with two beautiful baskets of flowers, one presented the club by the Helen G. Steele Music club, and on the speakers' table was the birthday cake, surmounted by five pink candles. A four-piece orchestra composed of William Hurlbut, Stanley Shaw, William Ramlow and Mrs. Nellie Monegan, played during the dinner.

At the close of the dinner these took part in the candle lighting ceremony: Mrs. N. L. Nelson, retiring president of the club; Miss Susan Hurlbut, incoming president; Miss Cecile Tilberry, Miss Cora Roop, state president of the Business and Professional Women's organization; and Miss Mettie Hanks, president of the Higginville branch.

Mrs. Edwin F. Yancey, an honorary member of the club, then sang a solo and Miss Mila Swearingen, acting as toastmistress, introduced Miss Rosemary Burrowes who recounted the history of the club.

Upon concluding, Miss Burrowes introduced Ira Melton who had been asked to speak in view of his having presented five years ago, in behalf of the mayor, the key to the city to Miss Pearl Wilson, the first president of the club here.

Mr. Melton praised the progress, enthusiasm, and spirit of cooperation which the club has manifested and spoke of the place of the woman in the business and professional world.

Mrs. Harvey McGugin sang a solo and was accompanied at the piano, by Miss Mabel DeWitt who had also accompanied Mrs. Yancey.

Miss Cora Roop, state president, was next introduced. She spoke of the short-range and long-range vision local and national, which the business and professional woman must strive to maintain and told of the work and progress of the thirty-two clubs in the Missouri Federation of Business and Professional Women. She also called attention to the state convention to be held at Columbia in the spring.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. N. L. Nelson, as the retiring president, addressed the club, thanking the members for their cooperation during her administration, and presented the chairman's gavel to Miss Susan Hurlbut, the incoming president.

In appreciation of Mrs. Nelson's service, Miss Hurlbut presented her a bouquet of roses on behalf of the club.

Miss Hurlbut then closed the celebration with a prospect of the future of the club.

We would like to extend our sympathy to the following members at the loss of a family member.

If you make a dinner reservation for our meeting, the deadline to cancel that reservation is Tuesday. You will be responsible for the cost of your meal if not cancelled by Tuesday. We are having an issue with reservations being made and not attending meeting. We are billed based on the number of reservations as the Country Club purchases food based on our reservation count.

CASA's 4th Annual In Her Shoes event will be Saturday, April 6, 2019 from 5-9pm at the Red Cedars Barn located at 15576 US-65, Hughesville, MO 65334. SBW had a table at the event last year, and I wanted to let the club know that we have a very limited number of tickets available (less than 40). Tickets are $50 each or you can buy a table of 8 for $350. You can order tickets through CASA's website at HOME - CASA. If you order 8 tickets, the website will automatically generate the $50 discount. I would love it if some of our SBW sisters could make it, but it would be great if SBW was represented with a full table at the event. Thank you so much to everyone that came last year and to SBW for their continued support of CASA.
