article published in the Sedalia Capital dated April 7, 1927.

B.P.W.C. HOLDS FIRST BANQUET IN CLUB ROOMS

Plan for Easter Party to be Given Thursday
April 21; Adopt "Big Sister" Movement

The members of the Sedalia Business and Professional Women's club had their first dinner in the new club rooms last night. The committee, in charge of Miss Eva Evans, had arranged a delicious plate dinner, with Mrs. Harold Maltby serving Maltby's coffee, which preceded the regular business meeting, presided over by Mrs.
N.L. Nelson, the new elected president.

Between the dinner and the business sessions,
the members were entertained by a musical program given by Mrs. Joseph Joffe of Yellowstone Park, Miss Irene Sandfort and Herbert Berlin.

One new member, Miss Eloise Sanders tuberculosis nurse, was introduced.

Announcement was made of an Easter party to be given in the club room on the night of Thursday, April 21, members who expect to attend to notify Miss Cecil Tolberry, the secretary. They also decided to hold a rummage sale the early part of May, Miss Christine Hutchinson and Mrs. Harold Maltby to be joint chairman.

The club has taken up the "big sister", idea, and already twenty members had taken "little sisters" whom they are "taking under their wing". They are enthusiastic over this work, and believe that much good will result.

On recommendation of the membership committee, it was decided to limit the club's membership to 75. There are now 56 of Sedalia's business and professional women in the club, and a membership drive will be made to increase the number to 75, when the membership will be closed. Those desiring to join then will have their names listed on a waiting list.

Our sympathy is extended to the following members at the loss of a family member:

Michelle Sparks – grandmother
Ladonna Meuschke – brother

Karen Steele is now home, but will undergo knee replacement surgery at Boone Hospital on October 26th. It is anticipated that she will be a patient at Boone Hospital for a couple of days before being released to go home.

Our wishes for a speeding recovery and hope that we will have you back with us shortly thereafter.

Activities for Sedalia Business Women's Week, October 21 thru 28 are as follows:

Service Project: Pettis County Community Santa (Donations of games, toys, and monetary gifts will be collected during all SBW Week Activities). Donations can be dropped off at McMillin State Farm Insurance: 1437 Thompson Blvd.; or to Betty Albrecht (660-473-2282), 5302 Pin Oak Lane.
